Bethany Doyle MTS, CCC, CBT, is an IIBA Local Trainer in bioenergetics and has a private practice in Charlottetown. She is a professional mediator and is certified in EMDR and NLP. She brings to her work a passionate concern for the healing of our connections with ourselves, with each other, and with Earth.

Rosalind McVicar, BScN, CCC, CBT has a background in nursing and is an IIBA Local Trainer in bioenergetics. Her training includes certification in EMDR and NLP. She is keenly interested in the life of the body, and in the process of freeing one's spirit to be truly present to the self and the other. She believes that body/spirit work is the best way to resolve emotional issues.
